To the Director-General

Circular letter No. 52

Subject: Vacancy Notice No. 33D-2016/SG-HRMD/EXTERNAL/D1

Dear Sir,

The post described in the Annex is to be filled at ITU Headquarters.

The relevant job description with the qualifications required, as well as all other useful information, is annexed hereto.

Administrations are requested to circulate vacancy notices to all potential sources of recruitment including universities, institutes, associations of engineers and the private sector as the case may be.

I would be grateful if Administrations would invite qualified candidates and especially woman candidates to apply for the above position not later than 13/12/16 on ITU web site: <http://www.itu.int/employment/Recruitment/index.html>

The Plenipotentiary Conference adopted the Resolution 48 (Rev. Guadalajara, 2010), affirming that: "... in choosing between candidates who meet the qualification requirements for a post, preference shall be given to candidates from regions of the world which are under-represented in the staffing of the Union, taking into account the desirable balance between female and male staff."

At its 2001 session the Council approved Resolution 1187 encouraging Member States and Sector Members to suggest for ITU staff positions, especially at Professional and higher levels, appropriately qualified woman candidates.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Houlin ZHAO
Secretary-General

Annexes: Vacancy Notice No. 33D-2016/SG-HRMD/EXTERNAL/D1

ITU is the leading United Nations agency for information and communication technologies, with the mission to connect the world. To achieve this, ITU manages the radio-frequency spectrum and satellite orbits at the international level, works to improve communication infrastructure in the developing world, and establishes global standards that foster seamless interconnection of a vast range of communication systems. ITU also organizes global Telecom events bringing together the most influential representatives of government and the private sector to exchange ideas and knowledge for the benefit of all.

To this end, the incumbent will perform the following duties:

- Directs the development, interpretation and implementation of existing or new human resources policies, procedures, programmes and systems consistent with ITU's strategic objectives and taking into account policies, rules and regulations of the United Nations Common System.
- Provides strategic advice to the Secretary General, to ITU senior managers and to Heads of departments on organizational and managerial questions, particularly on staff resources, standardization of human resources procedures and appropriate disciplinary measures.
- Endorses and guides programmes of organizational change identifying change requirements, ensuring the development of innovative solutions and integrating them in the HR services and practices.
- Advises the Secretary General on appeals against administrative decisions as well as appropriate disciplinary measures; oversees the administration of all matters connected with the Appeal Board and the Administrative Tribunal and their conclusions taking into consideration the advice of the Legal Affairs Unit. Represents the ITU management vis-à-vis the Staff Council, particularly in the context of regular meetings with the latter or with duly designated members thereof. In addition, represents the ITU management, as necessary, in relations with any other staff grouping duly constituted pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Staff Regulations.
- Takes part, as adviser, in ITU high management meetings dealing with human resource questions and participates in ITU statutory committees and conferences (Council, Plenipotentiary Conference).
- Prepares and/or ensures the preparation of the documentation required for and participates, as appropriate, in inter-organization studies related to human resources and represents the ITU in inter-organization related meetings (HR Network, CEB Working Groups, etc.).
- Acts as representative of the organization in discussions with senior government and host country officials regarding sensitive human resource issues.

- Carries out other duties that may be assigned by the Secretary General.

Qualifications required

Education:

Advanced university degree in human resources or public administration, business management, law or a related field OR education in a reputed college of advanced education with a diploma of equivalent standard to that of an advanced university degree in one of the fields above. For internal candidates, a first university degree in one of the fields above in combination with twenty years of qualifying experience may be accepted in lieu of an advanced university degree for promotion or rotation purposes.

Experience:

At least fifteen years of progressively responsible experience including extensive human resources management experience at a senior level. Seven years of this experience should be at the international level. A Doctorate in a related field can be considered as a substitute for three years of working experience.

Languages:

Knowledge of one of the six official languages of the Union (Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian, Spanish) at advanced level and knowledge of a second official language at intermediate level. Knowledge of a third official language would be an advantage. (Under the provisions of Resolution No. 626 of the Council, a relaxation of the language requirements may be authorized in the case of candidates from developing countries: when candidates from such countries possess a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the Union, their applications may be taken into consideration.)
